Spacing your children at least 2 years apart is key to a healthy and prosperous family

Visit your nearest health facility for advice on family planning